Dear Father Mulligan:

This is a final response to your 11 July 2001 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for records (83 specific items) pertaining to Father James (Guadalupe) Carney and David Arturo Baez Cruz, two U.S. citizens who disappeared in Honduras in 1983 after entering that country from Nicaragua with a guerrilla column. We processed your request in accordance with the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552, as amended, and the CIA Information Act, 50 U.S.C. § 431, as amended. Our processing included a search for records in two distinct categories as described in our 2 August 2005 acceptance letter existing through the date of that letter. Items 4, 8, 12, 14 and 15 were not accepted since they were not searchable as described.

We completed a thorough search for records responsive to your request and located the enclosed 41 documents which we can release in segregable form with deletions made on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1), (b)(2), and/or (b)(3). Additional material was determined to be currently and properly classified and must be withheld in its entirety on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3), and/or (b)(5). Exemption (b)(3) pertains to information exempt from disclosure by statute. The relevant statute is the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, 50 U.S.C. § 403, as amended, e.g., Section 6, which exempts from the disclosure requirement information pertaining to the organization, functions, including those related to the protection of intelligence sources and methods, names, official titles, salaries, and numbers of personnel employed by the Agency. An explanation of exemptions is enclosed.

We also located United States Government material that CIA did not originate. We have referred this material to its originating agency for review as it appears to be relevant to your request. That agency will respond to you directly. As the CIA Information and Privacy Coordinator, I am the CIA official responsible for this determination.
